

Business Analysis Report and Insight

1. What do you observe about the overall revenue?

The restaurant generated total revenue of ₹158.41K between April and June 2025. Approximately 87% of total revenue was generated in April, while the remaining 13% was generated across May and June.

2. Which products appear to be the strongest performers?

Chicken Biryani was the highest-revenue product, generating approximately ₹16K, followed by Butter Chicken and Mixed Veg Curry.

3. Which locations appear to perform best?

Noida Sector-18 was the highest-revenue location, followed by Vaishali, Greater Noida, Noida Sector-15, Noida Sector-62 and Indirapuram.

4. What does the New vs Returning customer split tell you?

Revenue was almost evenly distributed between new and returning customers, with new customers contributing approximately 50.1% and returning customers approximately 49.9%.

5. What happened to revenue from April → May → June?

Revenue was highly concentrated in April 2025, which accounted for approximately 87% of total revenue. Revenue declined sharply to 8% in May and 5% in June.

April → 87% May → 8% June → 5%

Possible explanations could include:

- Fewer orders
- Lower quantities
- Certain locations stopped generating revenue
- Customer composition changed
- Discount behavior changed
- Dataset coverage/data-quality issue
- Quality issue

Data Quality Note — Order SW-216

Order SW-216 was identified as an invalid/anomalous transaction for business-performance analysis. The Order_ID was associated with multiple delivery locations and contained an unusually high quantity of 464 items, which violates the defined business rule that a single order should correspond to one delivery location.

The transaction contributed approximately ₹126.40K of the original ₹158.41K revenue, representing approximately 79.8% of reported revenue. Its inclusion materially distorted the overall revenue and monthly performance analysis. Therefore, SW-216 was excluded from the validated analytical dataset while the original raw data was retained unchanged.

